Serve something a little sweet and spicy at a summer party with chicken mole rellenos from Austin Catering.

New on the party scene

Austin Catering (467-8776) is serving up chicken mole rellenos — slices of chicken, topped with mango and wrapped in poblano pepper rajas. Light and tasty, but do have a napkin handy. Another of its summer specialties — tandoori lamb kabobs — are bite-size morsels of meat threaded on a stick and accompanied by chutney cream. Our tasters gave a big thumbs up for both. Chicken is $2.75 each; lamb, $3.25. Minimum order is 50.

Who needs chicken kabobs when you can have lamb?
